

An update on Healthwatch Warrington.

Healthwatch Warrington has been up to so much since our last update.

We have released our Women's Health Report, Attended numerous events and even published our Annual Report for 2022-2023.

Work has begun on our priorities for this year and we continue to be here to listen to YOUR views. Find out more about our latest reports, outreach and upcoming events.

Outreach and Engagement

MAMA MIA what a crazy few months! The team have been busy over the past few months attending events, and doing outreach.

We celebrated Warrington Youth Zone's first birthday, attended the NHS 75th Birthday Parkrun, attended the Still me meeting at the Gateway. Lydia was a speaker at the St Joseph's Family center AGM and the 75th NHS Celebration at Westminster.

This summer the team won the best dressed award at the Abba Tribute night for Warrington Disability Week, as well as attending the amazing DAD 2023. And if that wasn't enough, Clare provided and handed out prizes at the Family fun day in Latchford in association with Community Objectives CIC and Latchford Youth voice.

Reports

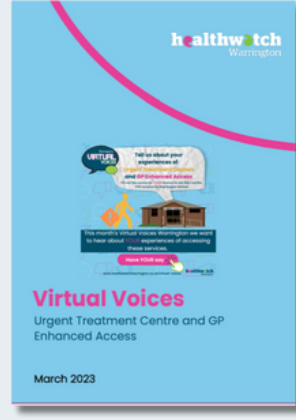

Each year, Healthwatch Warrington produces an annual report to showcase our achievements over the year and demonstrate how we have been working to improve health and social care services in Warrington.

Local Trends

As Warrington's local health and social care champions, we are here to listen to your experiences. Over the past few months we have heard from residents about their experiences on the following:

Accessing Dental services

Accessing Test results

Hospital Discharge

Accessing Medications

Workplace & Business Outreach

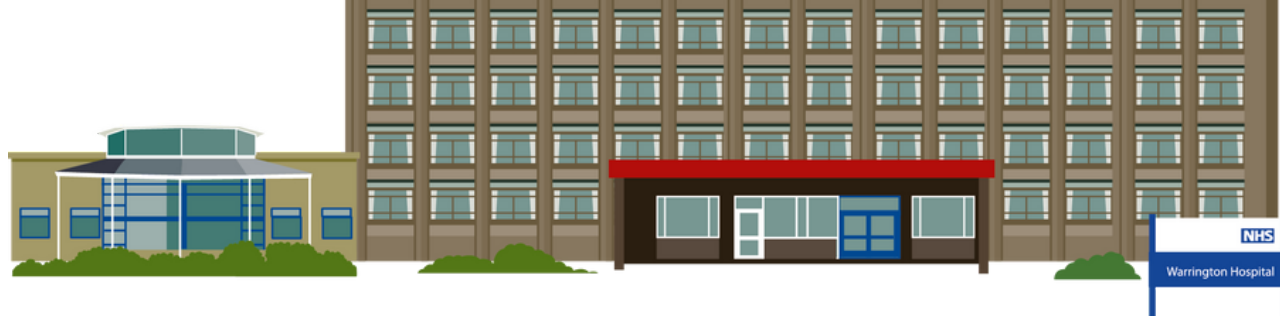

We want to hear from those that use services in Warrington and hear their experiences.

We have the power to make sure that your experiences are heard by those that run them.

Our team will come into your workplace, explain what Healthwatch Warrington does and give staff an opportunity to share their experiences or get information about local services.

Hospital Discharge

Healthwatch Warrington & Healthwatch Halton are the independent champions for health and social care in Halton and Warrington.

Part of our role is to understand the experiences of people who are using health and care services and to give people an opportunity to speak up and have their voices heard.

On this occasion, we have decided to find out about people's experience of hospital discharge following national reports on the subject indicating some of the current challenges.
